

DEC 28TH, 2012 – 4TH JAN, 2013

Newsletter # 2

Sabre Nationals

Royal Queensland Yacht Squadron

Improvements to al fresco dining and boardwalk at RQYS

Extensive improvements have been made to the outdoor dining areas and harbor-side boardwalk. The undercover area has been doubled in size and this will cater to the numbers of entrants expected at the events being held over Dec '12 – Jan '13

23/11/12

You won't be able to order a regatta shirt after this date

ONLINE ENTRY

Go there, do it
.....now!!!!
Check out the live update entry list – see who's entered already

Go to entry

Sabre boy and girl have made their plans and are looking forward to what Queensland and RQYS have to offer

What about the locals?

Sabre sailors from local clubs in Southeast Queensland (including RQYS, Darling Point Sailing Squadron, Cleveland Yacht Club, Southport Yacht Squadron, Maroochy Sailing Club, Lake Cootharaba Sailing Club) will be sailing in the Nationals.

Checklist:

- Accommodation
- Togs
- Sunblock
- Hat
- Sunnies
- ummmm.....oh yeah!
- Sabre

Sabres in Northern NSW

Big River Sailing Club at Harwood on the Clarence River is emerging on the Sabre scene. Activities include gatherings of the 'Ancient Mariners' on Fridays with the opportunity to camp over at the club and then sail in club racing on Saturdays. Several entries in the Nationals are expected from Big River.